■ Read the extracts and answer the questions : [12]

Climate change and global warming are dramatically urgent and serious problems that can lead to calamitous consequences. We do not need to wait for governments alone to find solutions to these terrible problems. Each individual can play an important part by simply adopting a more responsible lifestyle beginning with some little, everyday Dos and Don'ts. It is the only reasonable way to save our planet, before it is too late.

19) Which are the two serious problems?

20) How can each person play an important role to save our planet?

Headache gives the sufferer a touch of importance. All other aches sound crude and physiological and sensitive people would not mention them. No other ailment can be so openly mentioned with impunity. You could mention headache in the most elegant social gathering and no one would be shocked by it. The only expression which is superior to headache is indisposition.

21) Which ailment can openly be mentioned?

22) What is superior to headache?

Sojourner Truth (ca. 1797-1883) was a black American freedom fighter and orator. She was born Isabella Baumfree in Ulster county, New York, the daughter of an African named Baumfree (after his Dutch owner) and a woman called Elizabeth. About the age of 9, she was auctioned off to an Englishman named John Neely. The Neelys understood very little of Dutch jargon and as a result she was often brutally punished for no real reason.

23) Who were the parents of Sojourner Truth?

24) Why was Sojourner Truth punished very often?

The function of education, then, is to help you from childhood not to imitate anybody, but to be yourself all the time. And this is the most difficult thing to do; whether you are ugly or beautiful, whether you are envious or jealous, always to be what you are, but understand it. To be yourself is very difficult, because you think that you are ignoble and that if you could only change what you are into something noble, it would be marvellous but that never happens.

25) What is very difficult?

26) What is the function of education?

I know what I am talking about. My sources of information are as good and reliable as anybody else's. I have papers and magazines from England, France, Germany and Austria that I can read myself. Not all the editors I have met can do

'Govt. to think over GST on Health Insurance'

New Delhi
Times of India
Sept. 1, 2024

The GST council has established a group of ministers to scrutinize the GST on health insurance policies. Currently premiums for both health and life insurance are subject to an 18% tax. This initiative was announced during the 54th council meeting, chaired by Union Finance Minister, Nirmala Sitharaman in New Delhi.

This comes after reports that the council was likely to offer substantial relief to individuals and senior citizens by reducing the GST rate on health insurance premiums. In the year 2023-24, the centre and states collected ₹ 8,262.94 crore GST from health insurance premiums - The 54th GST council meet began on Monday at Sushma Swaraj Bhawan in New Delhi.
